

Maureen Mould, a motivational speaker, humorist, and trainer is the Executive Director of the non-profit organization, Kaleidoscope Konnections, which she founded in 2004. It is dedicated to offering creative, humorous, and engaging presentations designed to enlighten, teach, and encourage.

Maureen is an award-winning humorous Toastmaster presenter. As a captivating speaker, Maureen has a talent for taking an ordinary situation and turning it into a fun, humorous learning experience. Her presentations bring a message that energizes and creates a desire in her listeners for positive personal change.

She has presented at regional and state conferences for business and service organizations in addition to colleges, healthcare, corporate, educational and holiday events.

Maureen holds a BS in Special Education with a minor in Psychology and an MS in Therapeutic Recreation. She's also completed advanced studies in Early Childhood Education and has over 35 years experience in the educational and administration fields.

As "OOCHIE" the Clown she writes, directs, and performs in Christian, educational, and community skits.

Testimonials for Maureen:

"Full of beauty and spirit—you give gifts of laughter, joy, compassion, acceptance, love and care."

"Maureen was able to show me the incredible tenacity that we all possess in a comfortable, humorous conversational style."

"I admire Maureen for her ability to tell a story that teaches while it entertains. She is an excellent speaker and teacher."

"She transforms some of the hardest things we face in life into laughter and wisdom; what a gift!"

"Her presentation was informational, fun, inspirational and challenged me to look at how I interact with others in a new light."

In recognition of her contributions to the betterment of children and families locally, nationally, and worldwide, in 2008 Maureen was awarded an honorary membership into the Washington Association of Family and Consumer Science. It is her passion to make learning fun as well as to bring hope and a smile to all she encounters.
